Dear Good Shepherd Community,

I am currently gearing up for another year of confirmation with Good Shepherd's phenomenal 6th-9th graders. It would be only 6th-8th but we have one student who wants to stay with us another year! It is a very eclectic and fascinating group of students!

This year the focus is on the basics of the Christian Faith using Luther's Small Catechism. Some of you know this little gem by heart and can recite it on a dime from your confirmation days! I've heard you! Some of you did not grow up Lutheran and have never seen it before. That's ok too! One of the beautiful things about Good Shepherd is that we come from a wide variety of faith backgrounds—Lutheran, Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian, Unitarian, Mennonite, Hindu, and agnostic just to name a few! And some people did not grow up in any faith tradition. It's wonderful! We can learn from one another.

As I have been preparing to teach our kids about the Small Catechism, I have been thinking about how very practical and applicable these teachings would be for the rest of the congregation. No matter how long you've been a Lutheran, or even if you aren't ready to call yourself a Lutheran—I think we could all use a refresher in the basics of our Christian Faith. If we are wise, we never stop returning to the basics because while the teachings may not change, we do. We go through different ages and stages and the world around us changes too. Therefore, how we are called to live out our faith in THIS time of our lives needs to be constantly reexamined, and it's helpful to do this learning together! No matter our background or age, we all have room to grow in faith and understanding and, we all have something to offer the community when we share our life experiences and ask our honest questions.

With that in mind, I want to invite you to a time of learning and growing this fall. I will be hosting a class called Life in the Lutheran Lane, with some help from some of the very smart professors and pastors we have hanging around our church—including Wanda Deifelt, Brad Hanson and Melissa Bills. These classes will be informal, interactive, and hopefully, FUN!

Take a look at the dates and times. You are welcome to come even if you can't make it to all. We'd love to have you, and feel free to invite a friend!

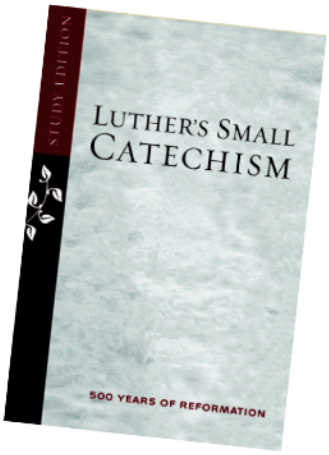

Your fellow traveler,

Pastor Kristen

Lifelong Learning at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Life in the Lutheran Lane!

with Pastor Kristen, Prof. Wanda Deifelt, Pastor Melissa Bills, Prof. Brad Hanson, and others?

Six Mondays: Sep 14-Oct 19, 6:15-7:30

(come to the ones you can)

What does it mean to be a Lutheran Christian? Whether you grew up Lutheran or didn't even grow up going to church, this is a good class for exploring and refreshing your memory about the historical roots of Lutheranism, the basic teachings of our faith (using Luther's Small Catechism), and our current messy grace-filled call to live out our Christ-centered faith in a complex world. Expect discussion, humor, maybe even a door prize!

Invite a friend—even a non-Lutheran! It's going to be FUN!! 😊

No previous knowledge required. Please sign up in the gathering space or by calling the church so we have enough materials.

Prayer for the month

Offered by Jane Jakoubek

O God, thank you for creating us in your image and sending us forth with gifts to share with the world. Thank you for claiming us as beloved children. Thank you for being with us when the world calls us by other names, when other voices pull us away from you, and when our own weaknesses and fears lead us to look elsewhere for what our hearts and lives need most.

Be with us today. Help us keep turning to you. Help us remember that all our hearts most truly yearn for is found in your love, your truth and your way. Thank you for being the One who Creates, the One who Rescues, and the One who Sustains, now and always. Amen.

11-12 in the Library

If you are considering joining Good Shepherd, you are most welcome and this event is for you! This will be an informal time for prospective members to meet with Pastor Kristen and other leaders of the church to learn more about our congregation and what it means to be a member. It does not commit you to joining. Children are welcome! If childcare in the nursery would be helpful, please let us know and we will make arrangements. If you plan to attend, please sign up on the Welcome Table in the Gathering Space.

If you already know that you plan to become a member, please click here or scan this code to fill out our membership form online so that we can include you in everything happening at Good Shepherd.

We plan to receive new members in worship on Sunday October 18. You can still join even if you are not available on that Sunday.

VBS 2026!

Good Shepherd 2026 VBS was a hit!

We had 17 kids who participated, and many youth and adults who volunteered to help. There were Bible stories told in dramatic fashion, themed games and crafts, music time led by Brooke—complete with their own songbook and a quartet of four youth who played in a band to help the kids learn several Irish hymns.

We paired this event with a VBS- Themed Dinner Church on August 10 in which we delved deeper into the psalm in table discussion.

We are so thankful for all who helped make this week a success, and especially to Gabby who planned the week, recruited volunteers, and led us all through a wonderful week.

LIFT
(LEARNING IN FAITH TOGETHER)
RESUMES SEPTEMBER 9!

Supper at 5:30 every Wednesday followed by education for all ages.

Check out the next page for the adult learning schedule!

GET READY!

Adult LIFT (Learning in Faith Together) Sessions for September, 2026
HAVE FUN; DO STUFF; BUILD COMMUNITY; LEARN SOMETHING NEW!

Join us for Adult LIFT programs on Wednesday evenings at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. A light supper will be served at 5:30, followed by the weekly program, with a short prayer and closing at 7.

Schedule for September, 2026:

September 9: "Welcome to LIFT!"
With Bob Larson
As we set out on a new year of Adult LIFT, let's take a moment to tell our stories. How did we get here? What are we up to? What brings us together at Good Shepherd? And what does our faith have to do with it? Each of us has stories to tell. Join us for this playful, interactive session led by Emeritus Professor of Theatre, Bob Larson, who knows a whole lot about play and storytelling.

September 16: "Girls Matter, Period!"
With Sue Blom
Did you know that Thrivent will help subsidize individual congregation members with seed money for eligible projects? It's up to $250, twice a year! In this program, we'll learn how Sue Blom uses her Thrivent Action Grant to make sanitary kits for girls who otherwise would find it impossible to attend school. We'll help Sue get started on her next shipment. Hear how other members of Good Shepherd have tapped into this seed money–and start dreaming: what could you do?

September 23: "N. T. Wright and the New Testament"
With Dan Raney and Martin Klammer
In this program, we'll explore and discuss a selection of writings by Nicholas Thomas Wright, a New Testament scholar, Pauline theologian and Anglican bishop. How can Wright help us see these familiar texts anew? Come with your reactions and your questions!

September 30: "The ELCA's National Day of Remembrance for Indian Boarding Schools"
With Peter Scholl
On the Day of Remembrance, we'll learn how Lutheran institutions, including Luther College, contributed to the painful history of Indian Boarding Schools. Peter Scholl will lead us through the particular history of the Bethany Indian Mission School in Wittenberg, Wisconsin. We'll share resources prepared by the ELCA to help us mark this day.

Adult LIFT programming at Good Shepherd is organized by Martin Klammer, Lise Kildegaard, and Norman Friedrich, in consultation with Pastor Kristen Larsen-Schmidt. It is open to all. Participants don't need to prepare anything, and there won't be any follow up quizzes. Unless you count one of Martin's Good Shepherd Jeopardy extravaganzas!

Children's Offering for September: The Shepherd Society

Established in Bethlehem in June 1996, the Shepherd Society has been assisting struggling Palestinians in the West Bank with meeting basic needs such as food, employment, and medical care. In 2007 their outreach extended to Gaza, and in 2013 they began bringing refugee aid to refugees located in Jordan. As the charitable arm of Bethlehem Bible College, it is one of the avenues through which we respond to the Gospel's call to love our neighbor and care for the poor. The goal of the Shepherd Society is to provide a means for the global community and Christians worldwide to encourage and financially assist the struggling Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza along with the Iraqi and Syrian refugees in Jordan.

Martha Monson Lowe will lead an informational adult forum about the Shepherd Society after worship on Sunday, September 13.

We raised $1,412.78 for Postville fire relief in August. Thank you for your benevolent generosity!

Thanks to everyone at Good Shepherd. You helped make William's 55th birthday wonderful! Thanks for the cards, honks, waves and wonderful time together at the Whippy Dip.

Thank you

Ann and Bob Naslund thank the Good Shepherd congregation, Pastor Kristen and the Orange Flock for the warmth and love you extended on August 23rd in recognition of our 60th wedding anniversary. Good Shepherd has nurtured our marriage spiritually nearly all sixty years. You have been a gift, a blessing and a "rock" as our faith home. Our love and thanks!

Ann and Bob

Dinner Church - VBS edition! On August 12 we had beautiful intergenerational conversation, connection and fellowship at our final Dinner Church of the summer. All ages came together for yummy food, fellowship and time to reflect together on the promises of Psalm 23. Jesus fed us as we served one another Communion around the table!

A huge thank you to our Outreach and Hospitality Committee as well as Jon Lund, Christy Tomlinson, Ann Naslund and others for their assistance in putting this together, and a big thank you as well to Brooke Joyce and our wonderful VBS Quartet! Finally a thank you to Gabby for all of her organization and oversight of a wonderful week of VBS. Our hearts are full and we are so thankful!

Jesse Cosby Center
Community Empowerment Agency

Pastor Kristen, Alex Anderson and Brooke Joyce traveled to Waterloo on Wednesday, August 26 to visit the Jesse Cosby Community Center, which we identified as the recipient of our 2026 Reparations Royalties Donation.

We had a wonderful meeting with their executive director, Debra Hodges-Harmon, attended their monthly birthday party and luncheon, and led the community members in an impromptu sing-a-long! This organization is a hub of the local community in East Waterloo, and we look forward to continuing to build relationships with them. We hope to host their gospel choir for a concert in the coming year--stay tuned!

Gather Bible Study

Fall 2026: "Bold faith on an unexpected journey," by the Rev. Tiffany Chaney

Faith often leads us down paths we didn't expect—into wilderness places, across unfamiliar lands, and through seasons of grief and hope. This three-session study takes us on a journey with Hagar, Ruth how God sees both them and us in our own wilderness experiences.

Session 1: Encountering God in the wilderness Scripture: Genesis 16:1–16; 21:8–21

Hagar, an enslaved woman pushed to the margins, encounters God in the wilderness. When she believes all hope is lost, God sees her, hears her and reshapes her story. Her witness reminds us that God meets us in deserted places with vision and promise. This session invites participants to consider who is marginalized in our world today and to reflect on provision. In Ruth's story, we see how God weaves love, community and promise through even the most uncertain paths. This session invites participants to reflect on the risks of faith, the gift of relationships and the ways God works through everyday loyalty to bring forth extraordinary love.

Session 2: Choosing loyalty, finding love Scripture: Ruth 1:1–22; 2:8–12; 4:13-17

Ruth, a Moabite widow, chooses to remain with her mother-in-law Naomi and step into an unknown future. Her bold faith is revealed in loyalty, courage and openness to God's and Mary Magdalene, women whose bold faith transformed their unexpected stories. Their encounters with God remind us that we, too, are seen, sustained and sent to carry good news into the world.

Session 3: Proclaiming resurrection in hope Scripture: John 20:1–18

Mary Magdalene's journey transitions from that of a grieving friend to the first preacher of the good news, after she shows up at the empty tomb and encounters the risen Jesus. Her story declares that women are entrusted to carry resurrection hope into a hurting world. This session encourages participants to recognize their own call to bear witness and to proclaim hope in Christ. (from Gather magazine)

Reciprocity: Seeing Connections and Relationships Everywhere
by Jane Jakoubek

When you think about the world, do you consider plants as something to use (enjoy, consume, remove if you don't want them) or do you view them as being of equal worth to yourself and other humans? When you eat a meal, do you stop to give thanks to the plants and animals that have given their lives that your life can be sustained? How do you take into account care for the earth–the land, waters, air, life forms–in how you live?

Most of us live within a world view that sees plants as things to use as we wish, but certainly not anything of equal value to ourselves. Some of us may pause to thank God for the food on our tables but few of us pause to thank those who have given their lives to sustain ours. Some of us may pay attention to how some of our many daily choices affect the earth, but too often our own desires, interests and preferences override any thought to the impact on other people or the land or other forms of life.

Earlier this Spring, Pastor Kristen invited congregation members to join her in reading "Braiding Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teachings of Plants" by Robin Wall Kimmerer. Recently eight of those who participated gather to talk about what they had taken away from their reading and conversations.

Reciprocity was the first thing that was named in our conversation, the understanding that every part of creation is in reciprocal relationships with every other part. Each plant–every tree, every wildflower, every prairie grass, even the plants our culture calls weeds–is part of creation. Indigenous peoples understand that each part of creation has its purpose. Each exists in relationship with all the other parts. And because of these relationships, reciprocity is a way of living that grounds daily decisions and actions.

Plants provide food, shelter, medicine, and clothing for us and other creatures. What do we do in return to protect the vegetables, fruits and animals that feed us? What do we do in return to thank and care for the trees that provide wood for our homes? How do we care for the habitats of cotton plants and wool-bearing animals that provide clothing?

Does all this sound strange? For most of us raised in the traditions and ideas of cultures that produced the stereotypical American culture, these are strange ideas indeed. And yet, for the Good Shepherd folks who read "Braiding Sweetgrass" they feel like new ways of seeing the world that are more life-giving, inviting. They beckon us into a world where life is more connected: people to the land, the land to people, people to each other. And there is a lot that reminds us of how Jesus invites people to live.

Intrigued? "Braiding Sweetgrass" is written in a way that invites the reader to learn, to see. It's stories are interspersed with information from the scientific world in ways that lead us into a new way of seeing. Another resource to explore is the Tapestry Institute, where non-Indigenous people are invited into the world of Indigenous knowledge (see tapestryinstitute.org).

We will have two more opportunities at Good Shepherd to learn about our Indigenous siblings on November 4th and 18th, including a Three Sisters meal. Stay tuned for updates!

Treasurer's Report from John Moeller
2026 2nd Quarter

This report should have appeared in the August newsletter but was omitted. We apologize for the error.

Expenses

Our total expenses through June were $216,807.47.

- Our total expenses last year at this point were $204,197.21. We expected our costs to go up this year so that should not be a surprise. The primary increase is in the broad category of personnel, with the two main items being the expanded role of the Communication Engagement Coordinator and the shift from interim pastors to a full-time pastor.
- If we spend at the same rate the second half of the year, our expenses would be $433,614. That is less than the $451,808 we budgeted for the year. We are a bit behind on our benevolence payments and we currently are not spending as much as we budgeted for office operations.
- I don't see any red flags on our spending to date.

Income

- Our income through June was $218,869.94. That means our income is $2,062.47 more than our expenses.
- In addition to that reported income, we have $12,157.04 I have not recorded as regular income because that reflects 2026 total offerings for a small number of persons who made an annual gift earlier in the year.

One way of assessing how well we are doing regarding income is to compare with our projected regular giving. Our 2026 statements of intent projected $410,000 in offerings. We might expect, therefore, regular giving of $210,000 at this point. In fact, our regular giving as of June 30 was $211,296. We are right where he hoped to be.

We also look good when compared to all giving last year. I have been more active in recording one-time annual payments, which explains the difference between annual and semi-annual giving in 2025 and 2026.

	2025	2026
Envelope Offering	$71,491	$55,218
Direct Bank Offering	$69,063	$67,595
Qualified Charitable Offering	$51,193	$88,483
Annual and Semi-Annual Offering placed in a designated account	$36,272	$12,157
Total Offering	$228,019	$223,453

This chart shows some decline in total giving but that may reflect when folks are making their annual or semi-annual gift.

What Should we Conclude?

It seems as if we are on track with what we expected when we prepared the budget. Recall that we built the budget with the assumption we would use $20,000 from previous surpluses. With luck, we will not have to resort to those funds but there can be unexpected expenses and it may be that those folks making annual payments have chosen to do so early in the year rather than at the end of the year (that means second half giving would be less than first half giving). At this point I do not see anything that should concern us.
